

Name: _____ Date: _____

WHERE ARE THEY IN THE PROCESS?

Prewriting

Drafting

Revising

Editing

Publishing

Instructions: Here's an exercise to help you become more familiar with the writing process. Read the following scenarios and decide which step of the writing process is being described. Write the correct step on the line provided.

1. _____ Travon is questioning whether his ideas are clear and complete.
2. _____ Pamela and Patrice are busy gathering information about their topics.
3. _____ Amara is eager to share her writing with others.
4. _____ Stephen is using his outline to help him get all of his ideas on paper.
5. _____ "Does my beginning grab my readers' attention?" Rebecca asks.
6. _____ Shawn asked Angela to check his writing for errors.
7. _____ "Just let me finish this quick drawing then I'll have a better idea what might happen in my story," Jeremy explained.
8. _____ Denzel was sure to type and print a copy of his essay to put inside his portfolio.
9. _____ I can't believe I found seven sentences with no end punctuation mark.
10. _____ They are making sure they include a beginning, middle and end.

