PHRASAL VERBS

with "give"

MATCH THE PHRASAL VERBS WITH THEIR DEFINITIONS.

Give away	surrender or admit you can't do something / hand work to a teacher
Give back	distribute things to people
Give in	stop being involved with a person because they disappoint you
Give out	reveal secret information / let a person have something without paying
Give up on	return something to its owner

CHOOSE THE RIGHT PHRASAL VERBS TO COMPLETE THE GAPS.

a) I've been playing this CD ever since Rachel lent it to me. I really ought to give it _____ to her and buy it for myself.

b) I feel like _____ James - he never does what he says he's going to do.

c) One of the supermarkets in our town is _____ free samples of a new king of non-addictive chocolate. You ought to try it!

d) No thanks, I haven't had a cigarette for three days, and I'm not going to _____ now.

e) All over town there are people _____ leaflets about how to stop smoking.