Subject: my room

Hi Joe,

how are you? I have been busy this week as we moved to a new house in the citycentre, and guess what?

I've my own bedroom! It's quite large and I have everything I need. My bed is right by the door and I have four pillows, a red blanket... and a large teddy bear that often sleeps with me on it! On my desk there is my laptop, one of my treasured possessions, and all my school books! On the left side of the room there is a white wardrobe and some bookshelves they are full of images and souvenirs. On the walls there are photos with my family and friends and posters of my favourite band. I love my room and I spend a lot of my time there!

What about your room? Do you share it with relatives? Do you have treasured possessions?

Please let me know! I'm curious!

Kisses

MartinaC.

DESCRIBE THE ROOM IN THE PHOTO

You can use these prompts:

- whose room do you think this is? A boy or a girl?
- it is: big/small; bright/dark; smart/cosy; tidy/untidy; empty/full.
- which objects and furniture can you see? (i.e. books, computer, ball...)
- say whether your room is like that or not.
