

Mock exam #2

A) Read the story

Princess Merida is the 16-year-old daughter of Queen Elinor who rules the kingdom together with her husband, King Fergus. She has 3 brothers. Elinor wants her daughter to become a royal lady, but Merida enjoys nothing more than riding her horse Angus and practicing archery. She is the best archer in the kingdom. She is ungraceful and had bad manners. So Princess Merida and her mother Queen Elinor don't have a good relationship. One day when Merida got home for dinner, she could hear her father and her mother talking about her. They wanted Merida to get married and they had organized an archery competition and invited three possible candidates for Merida.

Dys later, the three candidates arrived in DunBroch, Queen Elinor's kingdom. They all gathered at the Great Hall but Merida didn't like any of the three. She said she would never get married and her mother was so angry that she threw Merida's bow and arrows into the fire and burnt them. Merida started crying and ran out of the castle. She escaped to the woods and her mother was very sad.
