On the 2nd February people watch for the appearance of this little animal which forecasts if spring is coming soon. 1

It is a fun day for children. Children dress up in costumes like people did a thousand years ago. But instead of worrying about evil spirits, they go from house to house. They knock on doors and say "trick or treat." 2

It's a day where the President "pardons" a turkey, people get together with family and celebrate what they're thankful for (and watch football). 3

On 14th February people express their love by sending cards and giving flowers. 4

This is a celebration honouring fathers. 5

People celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ on this day. 6

A religious festival, on this day people dye eggs. The main symbols are bunnies. 7

On the last night of the year we celebrate the beginning of the new year. 8

It is celebrated in many countries around the world. On this day, people traditionally play practical jokes on each other and have fun. 9

It is a cultural and religious celebration held on 17 March, the traditional death date of Saint Patrick. 10
