Part 1 Listening

Listen and fill in the blank with a suitable word.

Approximately 1,000 people have died in a mountainous region of northern (1) _____ over the past week due to flash floods caused by early monsoon rains. Homes and roads were washed away, and (2) _____ was cut off. The high terrain has made it difficult to reach the survivors, though 80,000 people were (3) _____ evacuated. Drones and makeshift bridges were used to locate and rescue some of the survivors in (4) _____ areas. Rescue efforts by the Indian air force had to be scaled back over the weekend due to dense (5) _____ and heavy rain. Many of those stranded were on a Hindu pilgrimage to a temple in the Himalayas when the flash flooding hit. The pilgrims weren't expecting the rains to begin this early. Records show that this is the (6) _____ rain India has experienced in 80 years.

Part 4
Reading

Read the passage and decide whether the statements are True (T) or False (F).

The Amazon forest covers five million square kilometers, an area as big as the whole Europe excluding Russia. It contains one third of the world's trees. However, the trees are disappearing. By 1974, a quarter of the forest had already been cut down. In 1975, four per cent of the remaining trees went. If the destruction of the forest continues at the same rate, there will be nothing left in a few years.

Scientists say that the disappearance of trees is already causing changes in the climate. In Peru, there is less snow than before on the high peaks of the Andes mountains. In Bolivia there is very little rain.

What will happen if more of the Amazon forest is cut down? According to climatologists if the Amazon forest disappears, there will be less oxygen and it will be difficult for us to breathe, the temperature will rise, the ice-caps at the North and the South poles will melt. Even the sea level will rise. Therefore, seaside cities will be flooded.

Scientists do not agree about the calculations which can be done in different ways with different results. But all the scientists agree that if we destroy the Amazon forest, we will harm the environment. Life on earth will become difficult, and it may become impossible.

Write True (T) or False (F).

1. The Amazon forest is bigger than Europe.
2. It contains most of the world's trees.
3. Deforestation leads to climate change
4. If the Amazon forest is destroyed, the coastal towns will be under water.
5. All the scientists agree that if we destroy the Amazon forest, the environment will be harmed.
