

A day in the life of Robinson Crusoe

Robinson Crusoe is writing about a typical day in his life. Read his notes.

a.

I go fishing in the afternoon. Then I go swimming in the lagoon. The sea is calm there and there aren't any sharks.

b.

I climb the mountain in the morning. I sometimes see a ship from the top of the mountain through my telescope.

d.

I cook dinner at five o'clock. Then I go to my hut. It gets dark at six o'clock and I usually go to bed early.

c.

I get up at half past four when it gets light. After breakfast I wash in the river near my hut.

e.

At midday I sit on the beach under a palm tree. I eat some fruit for lunch there and write my diary.

A. Put Robinson Crusoe's notes in the right order.

1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____ 4. _____ 5. _____

B. Now answer these questions.

1. When does Robinson Crusoe get up?

2. When does he climb the mountain?

3. When does he go fishing?

4. When does he cook dinner?

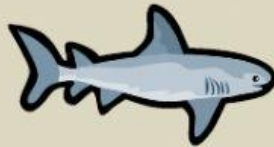

5. Where does he wash?

6. Where does he sometimes see a ship?

7. Where does he sit at midday?

8. Where does he sleep?

C. Match the pictures to the words taken from the text.

mountain
lagoon
ship
beach
palm tree
hut
telescope
river
diary
sharks