

Thanksgiving day

Hello _____,

Let's talk about _____ which is a very important holiday in _____. On this day, we watch parades, decorate our _____ and have a _____ family dinner.

But, do you know where this holiday came from? Let's learn more about the first Thanksgiving Day.

Many years ago, in 1620, a group of _____ Englishmen got off their _____ in America. They were called _____. It was a tough, _____ winter and they did not have enough _____. Many people _____ got _____ very _____. When _____ the _____ came, the pilgrims had to learn how to feed themselves. _____ showed them how to grow _____ such as corn. Native Americans were the people who had long lived in America. They know how to survive and _____ food on this land.

In the _____, the pilgrims gathered a big _____. This means that they had plenty of food to _____. They decided to have a fancy _____. Their Native American neighbours were _____.

invited to the celebration. The pilgrims were _____ that they had settled in a new place and started a _____ life.

Since then, American come together on Thanksgiving to _____ the things they are thankful for: _____, food, shelter and good health are just a few things that many people give thanks for this day.