

FORMAL OR INFORMAL GARDEN?

For each sentence, choose the right option from the dropdown menu.

- 1) The Italian Renaissance garden emerged in the late 15th century at villas in Rome and Florence.
- 2) The English garden emerged in England in the early 18th century.
- 3) It presents an idealized view of nature.
- 3) It usually includes a pond or a lake, green lawns, trees and picturesque architecture, like Gothic ruins, bridges and recreation of classical temples.
- 4) It follows very strict geometric and symmetrical lines.
- 5) It is often built around a central attraction like a fountain or a statue.
- 6) Its paths are curved.
- 7) Its plants are pruned to grow in a precise manner.
- 8) Its path are designed at right angle.
- 9) It is inspired by classical ideals of order and beauty.
- 10) It has to look as wild and "natural" as possible.
- 11) Its land is not levelled.
- 12) Flowers are used to add colour to the landscape.
- 13) Its aim is to make plants look like furniture.
- 14) Water is an important element: there are often water canals, water tricks and fountains.
- 15) It is an attempt to blend into the natural landscape through the presence of ponds, small lakes, bridges or long docks on the water.