

Science Review: Competition and Animal Groups

Choose the answer that best completes each sentence.

The fight for the same resource is called _____.

A food that kitties may compete for is _____.

Animals could compete for a source of water such as _____.

Animals also compete to find _____ and reproduce.

Usually, the _____ and _____ animals are the ones that survive.

Animals _____ or _____ to attract a mate's attention.

Animals show their _____ and _____ to attract a mate's attention.

There are many reasons why animals live in groups. Choose the answer that best completes each sentence.

- a) They _____ each other to hunt, especially large animals.
- c) For protection against other animals, especially from _____.
- d) To hunt and _____ smaller animals like fish or plankton.
- e) To give each other _____ in extreme cold conditions.

