A: Hi! I'm Mike Prior, and I write for the college film magazine.

B: Hi, Mike. I'm Pamela Jordan. I often read the magazine. There are some good articles in it!

A: I'm writing an interview for the magazine. Is it OK if I ask you a few questions?

B: Sure! That's great.

A: Did you go to see the new Sherlock Holmes film last year?

B: Actually, I did. I went with two friends.

A: Did you like the film?

B: Me and my friends had different opinions about it. I liked it, but they didn't.

A: Why was that?

B: I liked it because I thought it was a good adventure film. I like Robert Downey Jr, and think he's a good actor. I thought the film was exciting, and liked the story. It was clever.

A: Why didn't your friends like it?

B: Well, they really like the old Sherlock Holmes stories and they thought this film was too modern! They didn't like Robert Downey Jr as Sherlock. For them, it was like a James Bond action film, and Sherlock Holmes is really a great detective, not an action man! Also, in the old stories, Dr. Watson is quite slow and not clever like Sherlock. But in this film, he's very quick and clever too!

A: Do you think it's good to make films from books?

B: Yes, I do. I read some of the Sherlock Holmes stories after the film.

A: Did you like them?

B: Yes. They were good. But I preferred the film! It was more exciting!
