

4. My friends aren't here. (in class) → _____

5. I don't want coffee. (tea) → _____

E. Choose the correct word.

1. She _____ long, brown hair. (Is / has)

2. He _____ very tall. (Has / is)

3. All three brothers _____ dark hair and dark eyes. (Have / are)

4. My parents _____ both short and a little heavy. (Are / have)

5. My uncle _____ a beard. (Is / has)

F. Write the sentence or question in the negative form. Use contractions.

Example: We are going to the party tonight. We're not going to the party tonight.

1. John is working today. _____

2. Kiri is studying for a test. _____

3. They're waving to us. _____

4. The dogs are barking. _____

5. We are helping our mother. _____

G. Write sentences or questions in the present continuous using the cues.

1. your mother | not clean | the house. → _____

2. Martin | dance with | my sister? → _____

3. where | they | go | on vacation? → _____

4. what | you | cook | for lunch? → _____

5. I | not walk | to the party. → _____

6. she | smile and wave at us. → _____

H. Choose the correct word.

1. Ms. Ramirez is a good teacher. The students like (him – she – her).

2. The Harry Potter books are popular. A lot of people read (them – it – they) .

3. We're having problems with the assignment. Can you help (it – us – we) ?

4. This laptop is expensive. I'm not going to buy (them – it – they) .

5. This gift is from my friend. (Your – It- My) is for (I- me – my).

6. Is this a gift for your parents? When are you giving it to _____? (Them / they)

7. When I meet a man, I usually shake hands with _____. (He / him)

8. When I meet a woman, I usually kiss _____ on the cheek. (She / her)

9. I'm confused. Is Yuri angry at _____, or is he just a serious person? (We / us)

10. Is this your pen? Do you need _____? (Him / it)

I. Read the sentence. Decide whether the underlined word is a count noun or a noncount noun.

1. I love coffee. (count noun / noncount noun)
2. I am bringing oranges for my lunch. (count noun / noncount noun)
3. Would you bring a loaf of bread to the barbecue tomorrow? (count noun / noncount noun)
4. We need to go to the store to buy some tomatoes for the soup. (count noun / noncount noun)
5. Do you want me to buy rice at the supermarket? (count noun / noncount noun)
6. I always put sugar in my tea. (count noun / noncount noun)
7. These French fries have a lot of salt on them. (count noun / noncount noun)
8. Margarita is always eating bananas. (count noun / noncount noun)
9. Please buy some milk. (count noun / noncount noun)
10. We need a box of cereal. (count noun / noncount noun)

J. Complete the sentences.

1. Derek has a good job. He makes _____ money.
Much / a lot of / many
2. Do you have _____ homework?
Many / any / na
3. I need to go to the ATM. I don't have _____ money.
Some / / Many / much
4. I need to go to the ATM to get _____ money.
Some / any / many
5. Would you like _____ coffee?
Many / Much / some

K. Fill in the blanks with some, any, a lot, much, or many.

A: Do you have any money?

B: I have _____ money, but not _____

A: Do you have any friends in California?

B: No, I don't have _____ friends there. Not even one.

A: Do we have any eggs? I want to make breakfast.

B: Yes, we have _____, but not _____. You can't make eggs for all of us, but you can make pancakes.

A: Do you have any books I can read?

B: Oh, yes, I have _____ books you can read! There are _____ in the living room, in my bedroom, in the kitchen, in the bathroom . . . and here in my backpack!

A: Do we have any snacks in the kitchen?

B: Yeah, we have _____ of snacks. Chips, nuts, cookies, ice cream... what do you want?

A: Do we have any coffee?

B: Yes, we have _____ coffee. I can bring you _____ .

L. Read the text and answer the questions:

I'm Bruno. My favorite place to shop is at a big sports store in New York City . It's called All the Sports and they have everything you need for every sport. I really like to go shopping there because I love sports . . . all sports! At school, I play football, basketball, and tennis. I also like running and swimming. My brother loves sports too, and we usually go to All the Sports together. He likes cycling and he wants to buy a new bike there. Next time, I want to buy some running shoes . It's a great store!

1. Where is the sports store? _____
2. What is the name of the sports store? _____
3. Why does Bruno like to go shopping there? _____
4. Who does Bruno usually go with? _____
5. What does Bruno's brother want to buy there? _____
6. What does Bruno want to buy there? _____