

Irregular verbs puzzle 1 – V_{-en}

- a) Download this list of 100 irregular verbs.pdf
- b) Copy this list of verbs on a piece of paper. They all have something in common, and they all have some things which are different from others:
- be – beat – bite – break – choose – drive – eat – fall – forbid – forget – forgive – freeze – give – hide – ride – rise – see – shake – speak – steal – take – wake – write
- c) Use your piece of paper to classify them in 5 groups with the same type of irregularity, and one group with the rest.
- d) Now write the three forms of each verb IN ALPHABETICAL ORDER inside each group, and fill in the gaps in the example sentences with the correct form of one of the irregular verbs.

Count the number of verbs in each group and use the examples to help you find out the chart where you have to write them.

Group 1:

INFINITIVE	PAST	PARTICIPLE	EXAMPLE
			He his leg skiing last year.
			the right answer, please.
			Look, the lake has !
			Can you English?
			Robin Hood from the rich.
			Today I up very early.

Group 2:

INFINITIVE	PAST	PARTICIPLE	EXAMPLE
			"I all night" is a song.
			Have you ever a camel?
			"Inflation" means prices .
			Dickens very long novels.

Group 3:

INFINITIVE	PAST	PARTICIPLE	EXAMPLE
			Mobiles are in class.
			God can all our sins.
			Can you me a hand with this?

Group 4:

INFINITIVE	PAST	PARTICIPLE	EXAMPLE
			That dog has my little sister!
			The pirates the treasure here.

Group 5:

INFINITIVE	PAST	PARTICIPLE	EXAMPLE
			You must the bottle well.
			His grandmother him to the zoo.

Others:

INFINITIVE	PAST	PARTICIPLE	EXAMPLE
			That fun! The balls rolling everywhere! Let's do it again!
			Liverpool Manchester by 3-1.
			Have you all the sandwiches?
			He down the stairs yesterday.
			I have my homework!
			Have you John today?