Part 4 Read the passage and decide whether the statements are True (T) or False (F).

Modern Technology has had a tremendous effect on the lives of people and their entertainment habits. Today, the Internet has undergone a phenomenal global growth. It has become such an important data-gathering and communication source that few can't afford to ignore. The Internet encircles the globe.

Young people spend a lot of time on their computers because it's exciting and they have found on the Internet new ways of meeting a basic human need: the desire to communicate with other people. E-mail sends electronic messages from one person to another – like letters. File transfers move bulk data from one computer to another with these capacities.

Some people are making a fortune in cyberspace. Most companies have their own websites; others exist only on the Internet. They are something called "dot com" companies. Some of the most successful Net entrepreneurs are teenagers who are still at school. They are called internet nerds.

To become a successful entrepreneur all you need is: to start a webpage of your own, have a good idea for a business, think of a catchy name and find someone to lend you money. And remember that English is the most used business language!

Write T or F.

1. The Internet doesn't interfere at all with people's lives.
2. Young people spend little time on their computers.
3. Some of the most successful Net entrepreneurs are teenagers who are still at school.
4. If you want to become a successful entrepreneur, you need to start a webpage of your own, have a good idea for a business, think of a catchy name and find someone to lend you money.
5. The English language is not necessary to be successful on the Net.
