SUMMER JOBS

Listen and complete the gaps.

Introduction: In most _____ countries, lots of teenagers work during their _____ holiday and during the _____ too. Teenagers often put _____ in local shops saying that they can cut grass, wash cars, babysit...

1. Dog walking is popular for teenagers who _____. If they have several clients, they can make lots of _____.
2. _____ and the North of the _____ get very cold in the winter. Just walking from your _____ to your _____ can be dangerous. But some people don't have enough time to clear the snow. So it's a great opportunity for _____ to make a few _____ They go door to door and offer their services to their _____. All they need if a snow shovel and a lot of _____ !
3. In _____ and _____, people like to read their _____ while they're having _____ or on the way to work. Teenagers are allowed to start work at ____ a.m. so they can _____ before they go to _____ . Paperboys or papergirls _____ up very _____. They walk or _____ to go to the newsagent's. They pick up a big _____ and deliver the papers around the neighbourhood.
4. In_____, teenagers between _____ and _____ are allowed to work _____ hours a day on school days and _____ hours on Saturdays. And they can work _____ hours a week during the holidays. In _____ , they usually stock shelves. They don't need a _____ but they need to be organized, _____ , polite and _____ to customers. Being on your _____ all day can be tiring and _____ But for ____ or ____ pounds for an hour it's worth it. It gives them some financial independence and it looks great on a CV.
5. On school days, _____ teenagers under ____ can work up to ____ hours. But when there's no school they can work up to ____ hours a week (when they're on holiday). A lot of high school students work in _____ and diners after school, at _____ or during the holidays. The wages are often low for waiters and _____, so tips are very _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS