

EXTREME ADJECTIVES

Drag and drop each extreme adjective next to the correct adjective. The word “brilliant” has two different meanings.

boiling huge tiny awful terrified gigantic awesome astounded brilliant brilliant terrible furious miserable

- Big
- Small
- Good
- Bad
- Scared
- Hot
- Surprised
- Smart
- Angry
- Sad

Choose the correct option to complete each sentence. BARE IN MIND that extreme adjectives CANNOT be used with the word “VERY,” they can take “absolutely” or “completely” instead.

- a. Here you are some tea. Be careful! It's
- b. Have you watched the new horror movie? It's called The Other Type, and it's very
- c. Have you seen Tommy win the Maths Olympics? That boy is absolutely
- d. My grandpa isn't going out these days. Since my granny passed away, he's been completely
- e. I've lost my earring! Can you help me find it? It's very