

Gerunds and Infinitives – same verb

Task 1: Match the definitions to the sentences below by clicking and dragging them to the correct spaces

Try an idea to achieve a result	Wish I hadn't done it
To not remember to do something	Didn't forget
Stop in order to do something else	Stop an activity
Have a memory of doing it	To still have a memory in mind
To continue doing something	The next step, to stop doing something and a new action starts
Try something that was going to be hard, made an effort to try something	Sorry to tell you

I remembered to do my homework.
Lucy remembered visiting the city before
We stopped to ask for help.
She stopped talking when the teacher came in.
We regret to inform you that the match will be cancelled.
I regret telling him my secret.
They tried to tell him it was dangerous, but he wouldn't listen.
I tried using the key, but the door didn't open.
I forgot to tell you.
They never forgot winning the World Cup.
The star footballer will go on to become a coach.
I'll go on playing football as long as I can.

Task 2: Controlled practice

Fill in the questions with the correct form of the verb

- Do you think you will ever go on _____ (become) famous? What might you be famous for?
- What was the last important thing you forgot _____ (do) on time? In general, how forgetful would you say you are?
- Is there anything you regret _____ (say) to a family member/friend recently? How do you deal with regrets?
- How important is it to stop _____ (have) a break when studying? What do you normally do when you give yourself a break?

Task 3: Freer practice

Use these questions to have a discussion with your partner/s

Extra activity: create your own questions using some of these verbs in gerund and/or infinitive!

