

WEEKEND HOMEWORK

TASK 1: Dear students, we've talked about how to use "if" and "when" in sentences. Now, read the example and write about a place you or your friend may like to move to.

Kemal and his family live in Morocco. If his father gets a new job, the family might pack their belongings and move. They can move to my town in the UK. I live near London. Kemal's father is a doctor. They might like my town because the hospitals are very good. If they stay in the UK, we can spend time together in London.

My friend and his/ her family live in _____. If his/her mother _____, his/ her family might _____. They can move to my town in _____. I live in a beautiful city full of with _____. It has good services and _____. My friend's father is a _____. They might like my town because, in my town _____ very good. And there are a lot of _____. If they stay in _____, we can have great time together _____ and _____.

TASK 2: Login to your MyON account and read the story "The Cold Winter Day" and answer the questions below.

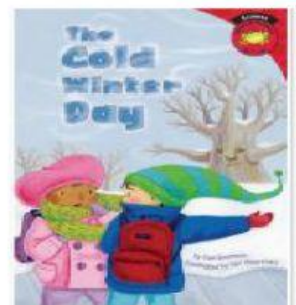

1. What are the names of the characters in the book?

2. When does the winter season start in North America?

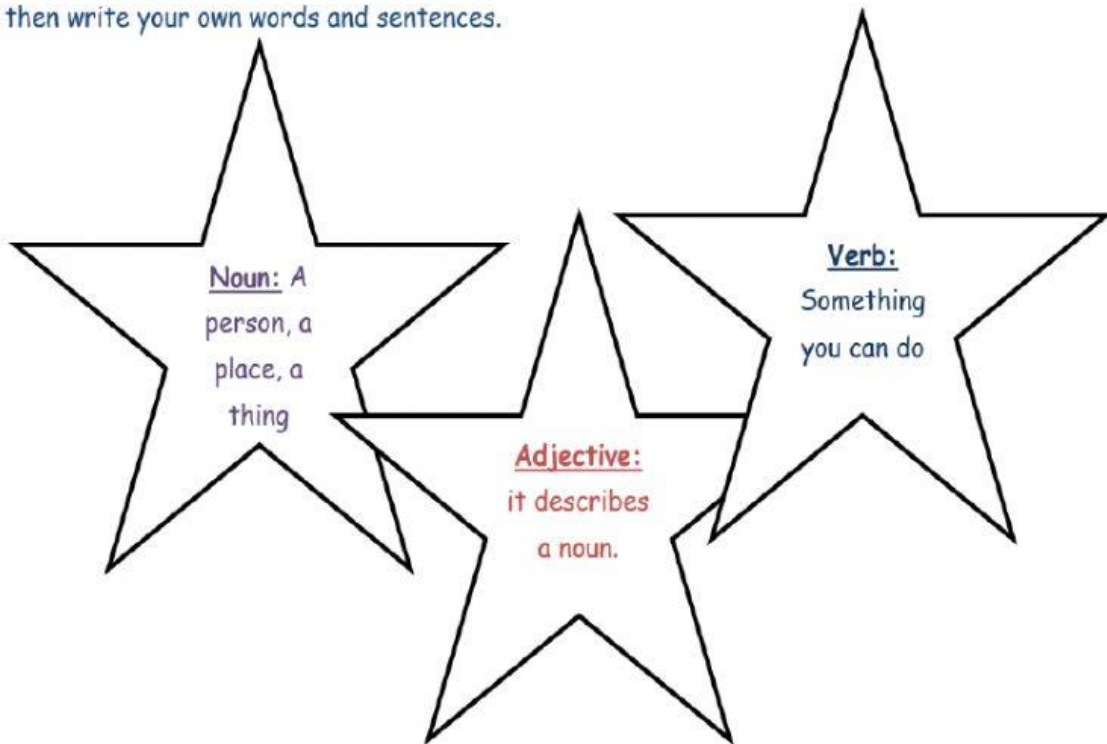

3. How was the weather like?

4. What did the kids do to make Old Oak warm up?

5. How did the kids make a friend for Old Oak?

We talked about nouns, verbs and adjectives. Here are some examples for you. Read them and then write your own words and sentences.

Here are examples for nouns, verbs and adjectives. Add three more.

Examples for nouns.

butterfly

cricket

angelfish

snowflake

ladybug

Examples for verbs.

bounce

kick

tag

drop

move

Examples for adjectives.

small

red

clean

large

tiny

