Re : Volunteering
Attachments : Application, Recomendation Letter

Dear Mr. Lehman

My name is Josh Tobin, Two weeks ago I saw the announcement for the volunteer position posted in the weekly community newsletter.

I appologize for the delay in contacting you. I understand that the completed application was due two days ago. However, I have been out of town on vacation. I will return on May 21and will be able to attend the orientation. Please note that all necessary documents are attached. My time this summer is limited. But, I will be available every Tuesday. Unfortunately, I'm not available on Saturdays and Sundays due to my restaurant job. I'll wait to hear from you prior to the orientation and training next week.

Thank you for your time

JOSH

Dave Smith
32 Alberta Way
Kingston, ON K7P 0L0

Dear Dave Smith,

On behalf of your brother John, and all of the people of Alberta, I would like to personally invite you to visit Alberta in 2005 to help mark the province's Centennial year.

A number of activities have been planned in the province throughout the year, and I know John would love to have you visit to help mark this important milestone in Alberta's history.

To help you plan your travel, details of some of the events can be found on our website at www.albertacentennial.ca, and additional information can be found at Travel Alberta's website at www.travelalberta.com. I am also enclosing a special gift for you, so when you do visit Alberta you can celebrate our Centennial by learning more about our past at one of Alberta's museums, historic sites or interpretive centres.

Please come join us as we celebrate our past and imagine our future.

Sincerely yours,

Ralph Klein
