

Relative Clauses Worksheet

Grade 10 () National

Date: / Nov. /2020

Name: _____

Practice page 151

Find the clause in each sentence. Then decide if each clause is restrictive or nonrestrictive.

1. The girl who has red hair wrote the story about coming.
2. The book that you found belongs to Carlos.
3. Ms. Lopez, who teaches English, is my favorite teacher.
4. During our lunch period, which occurs at noon, I take a much-needed break.
5. The girl who just moved into my neighborhood was her school's star soccer player.

Practice: Workbook Page 73

Decide whether each sentence below contains a restrictive or nonrestrictive relative clause. Underline the clause and then decide if each clause is restrictive or nonrestrictive.

1. The teacher who has dark hair said that her favorite color is yellow.
2. The window that has been broken twice is now broken again.
3. The hip-hop star, who is rather tall has sold many albums.
4. The party, which was planned for Saturday, will now be on Sunday.
5. Add the ingredients for the cake mix, which is on the counter.
6. The student who has the highest grade won the prize.
7. The birdhouse that sits in the oak tree has been invaded by squirrels.
8. Your homework, which seems impossible, can be completed with hard work.