

SPOOKY STORIES

Order the story.

	She turned and ran like the wind. When she got back to the house, her granny asked: "What's wrong? You're as white as a sheet!" She described what she had heard but her granny 1)_____ laughed. Apparently, one of her neighbour's children had been out playing and had hurt herself 2)_____ Her crying was what Nora had heard. "Don't worry, Nora. The banshee won't come for me for another few years!"
	The day after she arrived, Nora and her grandmother sat by the fire to talk. "Tell me a story, Granny," Nora asked 3)_____ Granny smiled and began to tell her about the banshee, an 4)_____ fairy who appeared whenever someone was about to die. "The banshee announced the death by wailing and crying while combing her grey hair with 5)_____ comb," she continued. "Ooh Granny, that's 6)_____!" Nora said.
	It was a 7)_____ winter and Nora was visiting her grandmother in Ireland. Her grandmother was a 8)_____ and sensitive woman who knew many old stories and tales.
	The next evening, Nora went for a walk along a dark, 9)_____ road. It was a 10)_____ night and she was thinking about the banshee story as she was walking along. Suddenly, she heard a 11)_____ cry in the distance. A cold shiver went down her spine. She was 12)_____ "That's the banshee", she thought. "Maybe she's come for my granny!"