2 Choose the correct words.

Hi! My name am / is / aren't Patrick Finch. I isn't / am / have got a Maths teacher. My pupils say I have got / is / am strict, but I isn't / am not / has got strict at all. I only think that my pupils are / have got / is a little bit lazy. Some pupils am / are / is even afraid of me, but I has got / are / am an ordinary person – like anybody else.

I have got / has got / am a lot of hobbies. For example, computer games. I is / have got / am in front of my computer only one hour a day. I aren't / haven't got / am not in front of it the whole day, like some of my pupils. I also read comics. My favourite comic are / is / has got Inspector J. It is / am / are really great, because you have got / are / isn't a detective, too, and you help Inspector J. Good for my brain!!

I am / has got / have got a lot of friends, too. Mark and Peter isn't / have got / are my best friends. But we aren't / is / am very similar. For example, they like bungee jumping and for me it has got / are / is scary. Mark am / has got / is a PE teacher and Peter isn't / aren't / hasn't got a teacher. He has got / is / am a vet. He has got / have got / isn't a little zoo at home.

My favourite free-time activity are / have got / isn't doing mathematical calculations, but rollerblading. A Maths teacher on rollerblades!!! Why not! You see, teachers are / is / am ordinary people, so don't be afraid of them.
