

Instituto Universitario de Caldas

Reading comprehension activities (Twelve dancing princesses)

1) Who is speaking?

- "This boat feels different tonight" =====>
- "Can you give me some water?" =====>
- "Who's there? There's someone behind me."=>
- "Look at your shoes! What did you do last night"

2) Drag and drop the words to complete the text

invisible follow awake sleep cloak princesses

"Now, listen carefully to what I say. Those princesses will give you a drink. But you must not drink it. Do you hear me? You must not go to . you must stay  all night. Then you can watch them. And look! you can have this. It's a magic  the princesses will not see you when you wear this. you will be ! then you can  them."

3) Write yes or no according to the questions

- Did the princesses sleep in their bedroom?  No
- Was the castle wonderful?
- Did the princesses have fun?
- Could they see the soldier?
- Did the soldier watch them?
- Were there 13 princesses

4) write the right word to complete the story according to the reader.

The king had eleven daughters. every morning the princesses' shoes were very clean. The king could not understand it, so he read a notice. A soldier read the king's notice and saw a young woman. He gave her some water, and she gave him a magic cup. The oldest princess gave the soldier a drink, but he gave it to the cat. He followed the princesses to a castle across a river, he watch them dance with twelve soldiers. He told the king everything and then he married the youngest princess.