

Medical phrasal verbs. Match the letters to numbers

|                                                      |   |                                                                              |
|------------------------------------------------------|---|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. Regain consciousness                              | M | A) Your posture is terrible. Sit up properly in your chair!           |
| 2. Lose balance and collapse                         |   | B) I might drop in on my mum tomorrow                                 |
| 3. Vomit                                             |   | C) Lunch makes me tired. I think I'll lie down                        |
| 4. Move from horizontal to a seated position         |   | D) Everyone please find a chair and sit down                          |
| 5. Lose intensity                                    |   | E) You look green. Are you coming down with something?                |
| 6. To contract an illness                            |   | F) The painkillers wore off and I was in agony                        |
| 7. To put your body in a resting horizontal position |   | G) If your knee swells up , put some ice on it                        |
| 8. Become seated or stay in a chair for a long time  |   | H) Don't touch that plant. You'll come out in spots                   |
| 9. To show on the skin                               |   | I) That tooth is rotten, we'll have to pull it out .                  |
| 10. Raise your body to a standing position           |   | J) If I eat another sausage, I'm going to throw up                    |
| 11. Apply (to a surface)                             |   | K) Drink water, or you'll pass out from the heat.                     |
| 12. Become inflamed                                  |   | L) In the darkness I lost my footing and fell over .                  |
| 13. Lose consciousness                               |   | M) "I think you fainted", said the doctor when I finally came round . |
| 14. Visit informally without an appointment          |   | N) They put a cold soothing cream on my leg.                   |
| 15. Remove manually by force                         |   | O) The alarm woke me from my dreams. It was 8am, time to get up...    |