

FROM THE GULISMAN
CLASSWORK MONDAY, Nov/30/2020

Critical Reading

1. Respond: Which of the lessons from the Gulistan would you share with a friend? Why?

2. (a) Recall: In story 1, what kinds of comments does the prisoner direct toward the king?

(b) Analyze Cause and Effect: Why does the vizier lie on the prisoner's behalf?

3. (a) Recall: In story 6, why does the economy of the kingdom fail?

(b) Draw Conclusions: What do the details of the fable reveal about the effectiveness of the king's rule?

(c) Hypothesize: What do you think history Will remember about this king? Explain.

4. (a) Recall: To whom does the padshah, or king, turn for help in story 7?

(b) Infer: What do his actions reveal about the kind of ruler the padshah is?

5. (a) Interpret: What does the incident in story 35 suggest about the effect of individual human choice?

(b) Speculate: In what way might this story be relevant to kings or rulers, even though none appear in

6. Evaluate: In what ways do you think the fables in "The Manner of Kings" might be relevant to leaders today?