

Input Devices (Pointing and Audio) Quiz

Name:

Date:

Instruction: Match the terms with their definitions; please write the answer in the space provided. Each question is worth one point.

For example: A Monitor.

Terms		Definitions (meanings)
	Keyboard	A.	A hand-held pointing device that moves a pointed arrow on a computer screen.
	Joystick	B.	A device made up of a moveable ball that is rotated with your fingers or the palm of the hand mainly found on laptops.
	Microphone	C.	A device used to record sound and then save as a sound file on the computer.
	Voice Recognition	D.	A device that you can touch with your finger to enter information.
	Mouse	E.	A device used to take pictures.
	Light pen	F.	A device used to type data for use by a wide range of application on the computer.
	Trackball	G.	A device used mainly for playing games.
	Pointing Stick	H.	Enables you to enter drawings and sketches into a computer.
	Digitizing Tablet	J.	A light-sensitive stylus.
	Touch screen	K.	Device used by pushing the fingers in the direction the user wants the cursor to move.
		L.	Device used to enter information into the computer

What is an input device? (2 points)

A _____ used to enter _____ into the computer.