CHARLIE CHAPLIN'S EARLY LIFE

He was born on April 16, 1889. There is some uncertainty about his birthplace: London or Fontainebleau, France. His parents were Charles Chaplin and Hannah Harriette Hill, A _____. They separated soon after his birth. His father died an alcoholic when Charlie was 12, and his mother suffered a mental breakdown. She died in 1928, two years after coming to the States to live with Chaplin, by then a commercial success.

Charlie first took to the stage when, aged five, he performed in Music Hall in 1894, standing in for his mother. As a child, he was confined to a bed for weeks B _____, and, at night, his mother would sit at the window and act out what was going on outside. In 1900, aged 11, he got the role of a comic cat in the pantomime Cinderella at the London Hippodrome. In 1903 he appeared in 'Jim, A Romance of Cockayne', followed by his first regular job, as the newspaper boy Billy in Sherlock Holmes, a part he played into 1906. This was followed by Casey's 'Court Circus' variety show, and, the following year, he became a clown in Fred Karno's 'Fun Factory' slapstick comedy company in Britain.

He arrived in the United States with the Karno troupe on October 2, 1912. Chaplin's act in the Karno Company was seen by film producer Mack Sennett, C _____, the Keystone Film Company.

PART B

WRITING	10 marks

Write one composition using 110 to 140 words. Choose either option A or option B and circle the letter corresponding to your choice.

- A- Write a STORY about an interesting day you had when you unexpectedly met an old friend of yours who you hadn't seen for a long time. Use this plan:

Paragraph 1: Set the scene. When? Where? What were you doing when you met him/her?

Paragraph 2: Narrate. How long had you known each other? Where /when did you first meet? What did you do when you met that day? What did you talk about? What did he/she tell you about his/her life?

Paragraph 3: Conclude. Explain how you felt, what you and your friend arranged or intend to do in the future to keep in contact.

- B- Last week you bought a mobile phone from Garbarino's online service. You've just received it and switched it on but it didn't work because the mobile had a flat battery. You also noticed the screen was scratched. Besides, you were sent the wrong colour: pink instead of green. Write a LETTER OF COMPLAINT to Customer Service asking them to change it or to give you a refund.

This image shows a full page of blank, lined paper. It features approximately 20 evenly spaced horizontal blue or grey lines across its entire width. The lines are uniform in thickness and spacing, providing a template for handwriting practice or general note-taking. There are no margins, text, or other markings present on the page.
