

SIMPLE PAST / PAST CONTINUOUS

John 1_____ home from the station in his car yesterday evening when he 2_____ an accident. He 3_____ along a main road at 80 kms. an hour when another car 4_____ out of a side road and 5_____ his. There 6_____ a lot of damage to both cars and both John and the other man 7_____. One of John's arms 8_____ and the other man 9_____ a cut on his head.

Another car 10_____ John's. They 11_____ quite slowly so the car 12_____ immediately and a man and a woman 13_____ out of it.

They 14_____ to the damaged cars and 15_____ John and the other man out of them because they 16_____:

"Perhaps the petrol in these cars will catch fire and burn the two men". The man and the woman 17_____ some cotton-wool and bandages in their car, so they 18_____ them on the cuts on John's arm and on the other man's head.

Then they 19_____ a doctor and the police. Soon an ambulance 20_____ and 21_____ the two men to hospital.

Then two policemen 22_____ too and 23_____ to measure things. A tow truck 24_____ and 25_____ the two cars off the road.

Fill in the gaps in the text by choosing the correct form for each number:

1	was driving	drove	were driving
2	had	was having	didn't have
3	didn't drive	was driving	drove
4	was coming	were coming	came
5	hit	was hitting	didn't hit
6	were	had	was
7	were hurt	was hurt	hurt
8	was breaking	was broken	were broken
9	was having	had	didn't have
10	followed	was following	didn't follow
11	were driving	was driving	drove
12	didn't stop	was stopping	stopped
13	were getting	got	was getting
14	didn't run	ran	was running
15	pulled	were pulling	was pulling
16	didn't think	was thinking	thought
17	were having	was having	had
18	put	were putting	was putting
19	didn't phone	were phoning	phoned
20	arrived	was arriving	were arriving
21	was taking	wasn't taking	took
22	were arriving	arrived	did arrive
23	begun	was beginning	began
24	came	come	was coming
25	didn't pull	was pulling	pulled

IRREGULAR VERBS REVISION:

INFINITIVE	PAST	PARTICIPLE
	HAD DRIVE
		COME
	HIT
HURT
		BROKEN
GET
	RAN THOUGHT
PUT TOOK BEGUN