

WORKSHEET

NAME: _____ DATE: ____/____/____ 10TH GRADE ____

SECOND CONDITIONAL

We usually use it to talk about improbable things that could happen in the future.

If + sujeto + past simple, sujeto + would + verbo en infinitivo

Examples:

1. If she were my mom, I would try to make her happy.
2. If you were there, you would have the possibility to save her life.

EXERCISES

I. Complete the sentences with your own ideas.

- a) If I were you, I would _____.
- b) If she were there, she would _____.
- c) If they were angry, they _____.
- d) If he were guilty, _____.
- e) If you were smart enough, _____.
- f) If we were hungry, _____.
- g) If she were planning to move, _____.
- h) If I were responsible, _____.
- i) If he were mature, _____.
- j) If she were conscious about Climate Change, _____.

II. Using the structure given, reorder the sentences.

- a) my mom / try to make her happy / were / If / would / she / I

_____.

- b) responsible / say it / If / were / would / he (x2)

_____.

- c) would / If / arrive earlier / we (x2) / excited / were

_____.

- d) my sister and I / try to explain everything / If / would / guilty / we / were

_____.

- e) call me / If / would / they / Malia and Sasha / were / at the hospital

_____.

- f) alive / If / try to message me / she / Carla / alive / were / would

_____.

III. Try to be creative and create six sentences using Second Conditional.

a) _____

b) _____

c) _____

d) _____

e) _____

f) _____