Dear Ms Smith,

I read your advertisement in Teen Magazine and I would like to apply for a job as a Happy Holidays hostess this summer.

I am seventeen years old and I come from Greece. At the moment I am studying at a language school near Bristol. I can speak English, Greek and a little Spanish.

I like travelling. I have been to Spain, Italy and Britain. This is my second visit to England. Last year I stayed with my pen friend's family in London for a month.

I enjoy playing sports. I can play basketball, tennis and volleyball. I'm good at swimming, too. I can't play a musical instrument, but I have a good voice and I enjoy singing.

I'm sure that I would make a good hostess. I'm very sociable and I like helping other people. I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,

Maria Bapass

1 Complete the interview by changing the forms of the verbs in brackets.

Interviewer: So, how long you (live) here?

Mary: For about 6 months now.

I: Why did you choose Beirut?

M: Because my husband John and I always (love) Arab culture and the language. John's an English teacher and he (get) a job here in a language school.

I: Why did you want to take a year off?

M: Basically I (want) a break from teaching. I love teaching children but I (need) a change. Also I (draw and paint) since I was little but I never really (have) the chance to study drawing. So this (seem) like the perfect opportunity to have a change and learn to draw properly.

I: What you (do) here since you arrived?

M: Well, (find) a fantastic art teacher, called Fatima, and I (have) classes with her since October. She's great and she (speak) English, which is lucky because I don't know much Arabic yet. But I (learn).

I: Is Arabic a difficult language to learn?

M: Very difficult! Especially the pronunciation.
