Practice 18

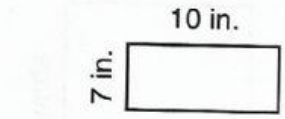
Reminder

The area of a rectangle is computed by multiplying the width of one side times the length of the adjoining side.

A = l x w

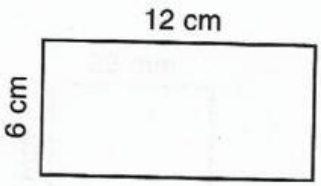
Directions: Compute the area of each rectangle.

1.



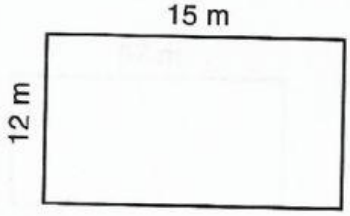
_____

2.



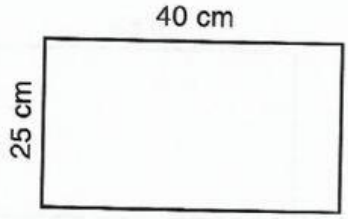
_____

3.



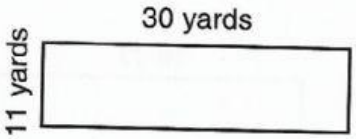
_____

4.



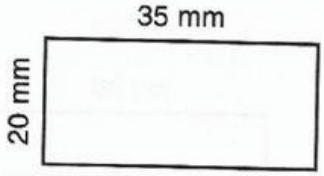
_____

5.



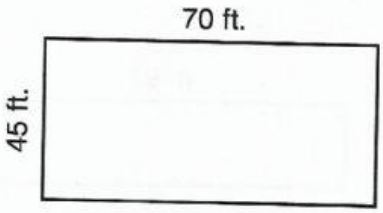
_____

6.



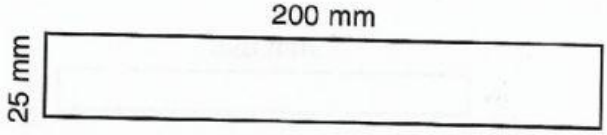
_____

7.



_____

8.



_____