

Belivable	More than one explanation is possible
Debatable	Likely to be untrue
Unprovable	Can be acceptable as true because it seems possible
Questionable	Can be shown to be true
Skeptic	A person who sees an event, typically a crime or accident, take place
Witness	A person who does not believe something

F WORD STUDY PRACTICE Use the adjectives from Exercise E to complete each statement.

- 1 His story is really . So many of the details sound far-fetched.
- 2 I think she's telling the truth. Her description of the events sounds very  to me.
- 3 Your claims are . It isn't difficult to find another explanation for what happened.
- 4 That the military found a flying saucer is . There is no evidence to show that they did.