

Group work

Complete the story with the past tense of the verbs and talk to your friends about the Story of Christmas.

When you finish, retell in front of the class by using your own words.

Mary and Joseph _____ (go) to Bethlehem.
There _____ (is) no where for them to stay.
At last they _____ (find) shelter and the baby _____ (is) born. An angle _____ (appear) and _____ (tell) the shepherds the good news.
They _____ (find) the baby in the manger.

Mary and Joseph _____ (name) the baby Jesus. Wise men _____ (see) a special star. They _____ (follow) the star to Bethlehem. They _____ (give) gifts to the new-born king.
This _____ (is) the first Christmas

Circle eleven irregular verbs. Write them and their Present form in the blanks.

W E S A W M A D E S
E C O H P I F S K P
R W E N V F O R Y T
E C A N M E U W A S
B A S A I D N T O W
G M U F A I D S O E
O E G O C G A V E N
T O L D A M A Z I T

are - were

Extension Activity

Letters to Santa

Read example of the letters to Santa from seven-year old American children.

Dear Santa,
Last year you brought my little brother a water gun. This year I would like a water gun too,
so I can shoot back.

Love,
Carol.

To Santa Claus,
Thank you for the baby brother you brought us last year. I hope you do better this year.

Love,
Roy

Dear Santa,
Thank you for the trains. My father plays with them all the time.
Your friend,
Henry

Dear Santa and Mrs. Clause, I am writing to you for my little brother, Tommy. Please bring him some nice toys that we can both play with.

Love,
Kate

Dear Santa,
I hope you can get a new dress for my mother.
It can be any color as long as it is blue.

Your friend,
Susan

The heart of the prudent getteth

KNOW

My letter to Santa