Teacher's Name	Yolima Ortiz Jiménez
Student's Level (CEFR)	B1
Grade	5th
Skills to develop	Listening, reading, writing and speaking.
OBJECTIVE
The objective is to ensure the mastery of the 4 fundamental skills for the acquisition of language through the knowledge of the future simple. Therefore, the teacher intends to collect evidence of the student's mastery of L2 in order to design subsequent activities that allow the advancement of the level of English or support in the possible difficulties that the students present.

- A TONGUE TWISTER TO WARM UP

- Future simple (presentation)

- The simple future is a verb tense that's used to talk about things that haven't happened yet. This year, Jen will read War and Peace. It will be hard, but she's determined to do it. Use the simple future to talk about an action or condition that will begin and end in the future.
- The simple future refers to a time later than now, and expresses facts or certainty. In this case there is no 'attitude'. The simple future is used: To predict a future event: It will rain tomorrow. To express the future simple you can use will or going to.

Buddy, you're a boy, make a big noise

Playing in the street, gonna be a big man someday

You got mud on your face, you big disgrace

Kicking your can all over the place, singin'

We will, we will rock you

We will, we will rock you

Buddy, you're a young man, hard man

Shouting in the street, gonna take on the world someday

You got blood on your face, you big disgrace

Waving your banner all over the place

We will, we will rock you, sing it!

We will, we will rock you, yeah

Buddy, you're an old man, poor man

Pleading with your eyes, gonna get you some peace someday

You got mud on your face, big disgrace

Somebody better put you back into your place, do it!

We will, we will rock you, yeah, yeah, come on

We will, we will rock you, alright, louder!

We will, we will rock you, one more time

We will, we will rock you

Yeah
