Demonstrative Pronouns

Reminder:
A pronoun is a word that replaces a noun.

Demonstrative Pronouns

Demonstrative pronouns take the place of a noun that has already been mentioned.

Singular:	Plural:
This	These
That	Those

This and these are used when the noun is close to you (important to you or nearby).
That and those are used when the noun is not close to you (important or nearby).

Example:

I was telling you about this podcast.
Gerald wants these posters put up all over the place.
That was the worst movie I've ever seen.
No, Carol wanted those shoes.

Complete the sentence with the right demonstrative pronoun.

1. (That, Those) _____ are the prettiest earrings I've ever seen!
2. Can you tell me where you found (this, that) _____ watch?
3. (This, These) _____ is Chris' favourite class.
4. You have never tasted strawberries (this, that) _____ fresh.
5. We will never forget (this, that) _____ time, when Jason fell down the stairs and didn't spill his drink.
6. Watch out! (These, Those) _____ orange ladybugs can sting you.
7. Can you pass me (these, those) _____ balloons?
8. (This, That) _____ is my car over there.
9. (This, These) _____ blueberry pancakes are delicious!
10. I got (these, those) _____ flowers for you.

LIVEWORKSHEETS