

Victor went to university where he studied electricity and succeeded in putting life into a human form, made of dead body parts. This ugly new creature saw Victor as his master, but the scientist was horrified and abandoned him. The poor monster wanted to be loved but he soon learned that people were afraid of his size and appearance.	1.
Victor wanted to kill the monster and followed him to the North Pole where he dies from the cold just after telling his story to the ship's captain. The monster finds Victor's body and is very sad at the death of his creator. He promises to kill himself, saying that he only wanted love and friendship.	2.
The monster decided to find Victor and, by chance, he met Victor's little brother, William. Wanting to hurt Victor, he killed William and implicated the family's nanny, Justine, by placing a gold chain on her. Justine was arrested and killed.	3.
From watching a family, he learned to speak and read. He was secretly kind to the family and felt he could trust them. One day, he revealed himself but they were afraid and attacked him. He understood that his life would always be unhappy and he felt full of hate for Victor, his creator.	4.
The novel begins with Swiss scientist, Victor Frankenstein, being rescued by a ship at the North Pole. He tells the story of how he tried to create life to help people, and the terrible consequences of his experiments . . .	5.
Victor went to the mountains to recover. The monster found him and said how unhappy and lonely he felt. Victor listened and agreed to make the monster a female companion. However, later he realized that this was a mistake and destroyed the creature. The monster was very angry and promised to ruin Victor's life. He then killed Victor's best friend and his bride, Elizabeth. Victor's father died as a result.	6.