

Name: _____ Grade 6

Subject: Social Studies Date: _____

Use the following words to complete the passage.

forest highlands mountains sea landforms peak rugged slope summit hills range valleys
plateaus plains rounded

As you travel across the country you can identify different shapes and features, known as (1) _____. The most dominant are (2) _____. They can be seen from afar because of their height. They are often covered with lush green (3) _____.

Mountains are (4) _____ rising over 600 metres above (5) _____ level. They are usually (6) _____ in shape. Mountains usually have a (7) _____. It is the highest point and is also called the (8) _____. Sometimes mountains are joined together in a mountain (9) _____.

Highlands less than 600 metres above sea level are classified as (10) _____. They are usually more (11) _____ in shape. Mountains and hills are separated by lowlands called (12) _____. The angle of the land surface from the mountain or hill to the valley is called the (13) _____. Large areas of flat land which are high above sea level are called (14) _____. Large areas of flat lands in the lowlands, often near the sea are called (15) _____.

