

A. Complete the sentences.

1. A trooper found something in the, uh...water that's at the q_____. Our working theory right now is that Will...crashed his bike, he... made his way over the q_____ and, uh...accidentally fell in.
2. The state police are mounting an i_____ to determine Byers' cause of death, but an initial inquiry...
3. -Lucas, Lucas, Lucas, Lucas, Lucas, Lucas
-Go away, Mike. I'm not in the mood, all right? Over and out.
-No, not "out." I'm not m_____ around, okay? This is about Will.
4. Attention students, there will be an a_____ to honor Will Byers in the gymnasium now.
5. Look at these f_____. They probably didn't even know his name till today.
6. -So why are you lying to me, man?
-What's your problem, bud?
-I don't have a problem. I'm just a concerned citizen.
-Yeah? Well, s_____ your nose someplace else.

B. True or False.

1. Copper's guy found the corpse in the quarry.
2. Mike heard Will's voice on the radio and believed he wasn't dead.
3. Lukas, Dustin and Mike changed El's dress to bring her to the school assembly to Will's honor.
4. Copper pretended to be a concerned citizen in the bar to find out why Will's body was guarded on the federal level.
5. Johnathan didn't believe Nancy about a monster she'd seen.