

Past Simple And Continuous

When Alex Jones <sup>1</sup> arrived at JFK International airport she <sup>2</sup> _____ (look) around but she <sup>3</sup> _____ (not see) anybody there to meet her. A lot of people <sup>4</sup> _____ (hold) cards with names on them, but they <sup>5</sup> _____ (not wait) for her. She <sup>6</sup> _____ (not know) what to do, but it <sup>7</sup> _____ (be) a beautiful, sunny day so she <sup>8</sup> _____ (decide) to go to the hotel on her own.

She <sup>9</sup> _____ (go) outside and <sup>10</sup> _____ (look) for a taxi. A lot of people <sup>11</sup> _____ (wait) so she <sup>12</sup> _____ (catch) the airport bus into New York. The bus <sup>13</sup> _____ (stop) in Manhattan, quite near her hotel, and she <sup>14</sup> _____ (get) off.

She <sup>15</sup> _____ (walk) into the hotel and <sup>16</sup> _____ (give) her name, Alexandra Jones. She <sup>17</sup> _____ (talk) to the hotel receptionist when suddenly a man <sup>18</sup> _____ (run) up to her. He <sup>19</sup> _____ (carry) a card which <sup>20</sup> _____ (say) 'Mr Jones'.

'Ms Jones? I'm terribly sorry! I <sup>21</sup> _____ (wait) for you at the airport but I <sup>22</sup> _____ (think) you <sup>23</sup> _____ (be) a man!'

'That's OK,' <sup>24</sup> _____ (say) Alex. 'It happens to me all the time!'

