

Read about Christmas customs in Great Britain.

Christmas is Britain's most popular holiday. At Christmas, people decorate the Christmas tree  and their houses, they often send cards to each other and children sing carols in the street.

At home, children have got a stocking and Father Christmas (Santa Claus) puts presents in it . They always open the presents on Christmas Day. In the evening the family has Christmas dinner.

They eat roast turkey with fried potatoes and Brussels sprouts. For dessert, they often have sweet mince pies or Christmas pudding.

At Christmas dinner they put crackers on each plate. In the crackers, there is usually a party hat, a riddle and a toy.
