

Complete with the negative form of the verb to be (use short forms if possible)

1. My father _____ fifty. He's forty.
2. I _____ British. I'm Irish.
3. We _____ teachers. We're students.
4. They _____ brothers. They're cousins.
5. Justin _____ an actor. He's a singer.
6. The FIAT 500 _____ a French car. It's an Italian one.
7. I _____ a journalist. I'm a lawyer.
8. You _____ a teenager. You're eleven.

Complete with the affirmativr (+) or negative (-) form of the verb to be (use short forms if possible)

EX: The Eiffel Tower isn't in Berlin, Germany. (-)

1. The Spanish Steps and St Peter's Cathedral _____ in Rome, Italy. (+)
2. The Louvre _____ in Madrid, Spain. (-)
3. Times Square and Fifth Avenue _____ in Washington, USA. (-)
4. Westminster Abbey _____ in London, England. (+)
5. Pyramids _____ in Cairo, Egypt. (+)
6. The Taj Mahal _____ in Beijing, China (-)
7. St Peter's Cathedral _____ in Milan, Italy. (-)
8. The Ramblas _____ in Barcelona, Spain. (+)

Complete with the personal pronoun subject and the short form of the verb to be .

EX: You and Betsy are best friends. You're best friends.

1. the students are very tired.
2. my friend and I are in the same class.
3. the dogs are in the garden.
4. you and Stefano are good footballers.
5. you, Tim and I are hungry and thirsty.
6. you and your brother are really nice.
7. Clara and Kate are models.
8. Ms Garner and I are Science teachers.

Complete with the short answers.

EX: Is it Russian? No, it isn't.

1. Are you French? Yes, _____
2. Is she Japanese? No, _____
3. Is it Indian? Yes, _____
4. Are they Canadian? No, _____
5. Is he Spanish? Yes, _____
6. Are they Swedish? Yes, _____