

Women and the Revolutionary War Web Search...

USE the Internet to find the answers to the following clues.

1. What woman donated $20,000 dollars for supplies during the Revolutionary War? She even followed her husband out to the battlefield where she cooked and took care of soldiers. _____
2. What female Patriot spy would signal Brewster's exact location by using her clothesline and a certain number of handkerchiefs hanging out to dry. The location would then be passed on to George Washington? _____
3. What woman gave up her rich Loyalist family to marry a Patriot and follow him into the battle fields? Her father, mother, and brothers never spoke to her again after she married him. _____
4. What woman disguised herself as a man and was even wounded twice during the many battles she fought in? _____
5. What woman wrote plays persuading the colonists to become Patriots?

6. What woman took her husband's place after he was wounded during a battle and was honored by George Washington? _____
7. What woman wrote poems about George Washington, Patriots, and their fight for freedom from Britain? _____
8. What nickname was given to women that carried pitchers of water out to the soldiers during battles? _____
9. What teenager bravely rode her horse to cities in order to warn them that they were going to be attacked by the British? _____
10. This famous female spy belonged to the Culper Spy Ring. She wrote a secret message in invisible ink to George Washington informing him how Benedict Arnold had double crossed him and became a traitor. Who was she? _____