

WORDFORMATION – NEGATIVE PREFIXES

Write the prefixes.

UN-

DIS-

IL-

IM-

IN-

IR-

1. There's something so ____ resistible about him that he gets everybody's attention the moment he steps into a room.
2. It was very ____ polite of you to leave without saying Goodbye.
3. That man over there has waited for his turn for over an hour now and he's getting quite ____ patient.
4. Your handwriting is completely ____ legible, I'm afraid you'll have to write the report once again.
5. My grandpa is practically ____ literate, he only attended primary school for two years.
6. No, Sir. I thoroughly ____ agree with you. I don't think one should ____ obey his parents or rules at school. Such behaviour leads to growing up into an ____ responsible adult.

UN-

DIS-

IL-

IM-

IN-

IR-

7. I never said I was perfect. On the contrary, I am one of the most ____ perfect, ____ certain and sometimes even ____ mature people in this office, but I've never been ____ honest, ____ obedient or ____ faithful to any of you. Therefore, I demand an apology.
8. This machine is ____ replaceable. I believe we'll have to get someone to fix it.
9. Hello, ... hello... I think I've been ____ connected.
10. Come and sit next to me. That armchair is quite ____ comfortable.
11. Poets become ____ mortal through their poems.
12. Many people believe it is ____ lucky to walk under the ladder or to break a mirror.
13. When did Slovenia become ____ dependent? – In 1991.
14. When somebody is a complete beginner and ____ experienced, we say he is green.
15. Her clothes were very ____ usual for the occasion, as all women in the hall were wearing long dark dresses and the men were dressed up in suits and ties.

16. It was highly _____ probable that Jerry would get to work on time. All the roads were jammed up with cars due to a road accident.