

How many sentences are here? Write it again with capital letters and full stops.

glasgow is a city on the west coast of scotland it is the biggest city in scotland in the past it was a major centre for manufacturing and shipping in the nineteen-seventies and eighties much of the UK's heavy industry closed large parts of glasgow suffered from high unemployment since then it has seen some signs of economic recovery

glasgow has lots of parks and museums its an interesting place to visit and a short drive will take you to Loch Lomond and to the beautiful west coast of scotland

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---