

ACTIVITY

- 1 Correct the mistakes in six of the sentences below.
Check (✓) the sentences that are correct.

a Could you remember locking the door on your way out this morning, please?

Could you remember to lock the door ...

b Do you remember to tell me that I was the only person in your life?

c I bet you forgot to bring the money, didn't you?

d It's so long ago that I've completely forgotten to say that. Did I really?

e She didn't stop insulting me all evening.

f They stopped for a minute getting some money out at the bank on the way to the movies.

g This season, I'm going to try winning both the 100 and 200 meters.

h Try to cook it in oil - it'll taste a lot better.

2

Underline the correct form of the verb. In one sentence, both verbs may be correct.

- a I really feel like I deserve doing / to do something special this weekend - I've been working so hard all week.
- b If I can manage getting / to get the day off on Monday, I could go away for a couple of days.
- c I'd love going / to go away somewhere - Boston, maybe.
- d I like visiting / to visit new places, and I've never been to Boston before.
- e I'd like going / to go by train.
- f I enjoy being / to be able to see the countryside.
- g I can't stand flying / to fly. I hate airports and waiting around.
- h There'll probably be lots of extra work waiting for me when I get back. But I don't intend getting / to get stressed out about it now!
- i All I want doing / to do is take it easy and relax.