

Match the sentences with the correct description.

- 1 g He'll be meeting his supervisor on Wednesday morning. (future continuous)
- 2 I'm going to study engineering.
- 3 The meeting will have ended by 4:30.
- 4 Mandy's late. I'll call her and find out where she is.
- 5 Careful! You're going to trip over that cable!
- 6 I'm sure I will get the promotion.
- 7 This time next week, I'll be singing at the Royal Albert Hall.
- 8 If you make another mistake like that, I'll fire you.
- 9 By May, she will have been studying French for two years.
- 10 The seminar starts at 9:00 am.
- 11 My grandmother will turn 90 next October.
- 12 I'll call the plumber to come and fix the leaking pipe if you like.
- 13 Will you be needing that dictionary? I need to use it for my English class.
- 14 I thought I would be following a more flexible timetable as an au pair.
- 15 You should call the office to say that you're ill or else the team leader will be furious.
- 16 He was in his room. I thought he would have finished his homework by the time I came home.

- a an on-the-spot decision
- b a prediction based on what we believe will happen
- c a warning
- d a prediction based on what we see
- e a future plan
- f an action which will be in progress at a stated time in the future
- g an action which will definitely happen as a result of an arrangement
- h a timetable or schedule
- i an action that will have finished before a stated time in the future
- j emphasis on the duration of an action up to a certain time in the future
- k asking politely about someone's plans for the near future
- l a situation that will definitely happen in the future and which we cannot control
- m a warning
- n an offer
- o an action that I thought would be happening in the future
- p an action that I thought would have happened in the future

Choose the correct option.

- 1 They married this summer.
A get C will get
B are getting D will be getting
- 2 The course on 10th October.
A is starting C has started
B will start D starts
- 3 Paula more independent since she started university.
A has become C become
B becomes D will have become
- 4 Why the way people dress?
A you always criticise
B do you always criticise
C are you always criticising
D always are criticising
- 5 Sam isn't at the office. He a meeting.
A has been in C has been to
B has gone to D has gone
- 6 I'm sure things in the end.
A work out C will be working out
B will work out D will have worked out
- 7 They the plans by the end of the week.
A will have finished C will finish
B are finishing D are going to finish
- 8 My old uniform me any more.
A hasn't fit C won't fit
B isn't fitting D doesn't fit
- 9 Why the lemonade? What's wrong with it?
A are you tasting C have you tasted
B do you taste D will you be tasting
- 10 Be careful! You the bicycle!
A are falling off C are going to fall off
B will fall off D will be falling off
- 11 The seminar will be over by the time they here.
A have got C get
B will get D will have got
- 12 Did you see my roses? They wonderful.
A smell C have smelled
B are smelling D have been smelling
- 13 My grandparents in the same house since they got married.
A live C have been living
B are living D have just lived
- 14 Jenny her first piano lesson this time tomorrow.
A will have C has had
B will be having D is going to have

Complete the blank spaces with a relative pronoun or type " – " if it can be omitted.

1 Robert's parents, are both retired, live in Spain.

2 Have you still got the money I gave you?

3 Sydney, has a population of more than three million, is Australia's largest city.

4 Peter's sister, I've known for years, is a very nice person.

5 We saw Maria last night with the man works in the library.

6 Is that the same song we heard yesterday?

7 Sue, has only been here for a week, speaks excellent English.

8 Who was the girl you were speaking to just now?

9 My sister, wasn't feeling very hungry, didn't want to go to the restaurant.

10 I've lost the money you gave me.

11 Mr Woods, lives next door to us, has gone on holiday.

12 Brighton, is a tourist centre on the south coast, is about 85 km from London.