

Match the parts to make up sentences.

She described him as a friendly and easy-going person	although I don't know exactly when.
In Los Angeles, a chief cause of this pollution is paved-road dust,	However , it has broken down twice this month.
She'll be coming tonight,	in comparison to the previous model.
They won the war,	whereas I found him extremely arrogant.
This equipment is state-of-the-art.	However , there are people who complain that they barely have any time for themselves.
Samsung Galaxy S is much more sophisticated	in comparison to many other countries.
The majority of employees are satisfied with their work-life balance.	whereas in San Diego, it's smoke from fireplaces.
The number of lawyers remains extremely low in Cambodia	although it cost them millions of lives.