

The Constitution pages 312-317

1. The kind of government our country has is called a _____.
2. In this kind of government, who has the power to make political decisions? _____
3. The beginning of the Constitution is called the _____,
4. What were the 3 goals listed in the Preamble?
 - A. _____
 - B. _____
 - C. _____
5. Which branch makes the laws?
6. Congress is made up of 2 parts... _____ and _____

7. How many senators from each state? _____
8. The number of representatives is based on what? _____
9. Congress has the power to raise money by _____ or _____.
10. This money is used to pay for things like _____, _____, and _____
_____.
11. What branch carries out the laws or enforces the laws? _____
12. Who is the head of this branch? _____
13. Who is the commander of the United States military? _____
14. Which branch decides the meaning of the laws? _____
15. What is the highest court? _____
16. What was wrong with the Articles of Confederation?

17. The Constitution gives the federal government more _____ but does NOT give the leader (the president) _____ power.
18. _____ must follow the laws.
19. What is the name of the speech that the president gives once a year?

20. The preamble begins with the words _____