

ATATÜRK'S LIFE

Atatürk's full name is Mustafa Kemal Atatürk. He was born in Salonica in 1881. His father was Ali Rıza and his mother was Zübeyde. Atatürk's four of five siblings died at young ages. Only Makbule lived until 1956. When Mustafa was a school-age school, he started to study at Hafız Mehmet Efendi Local School. Then, he transferred to Şemsi Efendi School at his father's instigation.

Following the loss of his father in 1888, he had to drop out of the school to move in his uncle's house with his family.. He started Military High School (Askeri Rüştiye) in 1893. His mathematics teacher added "Kemal" to his name. He went to Samsun in 19th May 1919 and war of independence started. He was given the surname "Atatürk" by Grand National Assembly of Turkey in 1934. He died on 10th November 1938.
