

Personal Pronouns

I. Choose the correct pronoun for each phrase or noun.

Man		Dog		Teachers
People		Woman		Women
A Cat		Bob and Joe		Students
Dogs		Three men		Friends
Parents		My Mother		Uncle
Girl		Tree		Restaurant
You and I		Ann and me		Shoes
Pencil		Girls		Computers

II. Change the phrase or noun(s) to subject pronouns. Write YOU, HE, SHE, IT, WE or THEY.

1. My sister is thirsty.
2. My grandmother is old.
3. The students are young.
4. The restaurant is expensive.
5. The dog is angry.
6. The company is big.
7. My boss and I traveled to London.
8. You and your brother are sad.
9. The men are in the office.
10. The secretaries are noisy.

III. Choose the right personal pronoun for the sentences below.

- My name is Robert Fleck. _____ am a firefighter.
- Lucie isn't from Russia. _____ is from Brazil.
- Alice and I are very thin! _____ are top models.
- Elizabeth, Emily and John aren't thin. _____ are kind of heavy.
- Homer Simpson is Marge's husband. _____ and his family are from Springfield.
- My doctor is from Germany. _____ is a very good doctor.
- Marcegaglia is an Italian Company. _____ is a big company.
- Her name is Michelle. _____ is from Lyon, France.
- Are Leslie and Fred football players? _____ are so tall!
- Her classmates aren't from Japan. _____ are from China.